

The screenshot shows the India Today website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'indiatoday BETA in', 'NEWS Live! TV', and 'MAGAZINE'. Below this are social media icons and a search icon. A row of news snippets follows, including 'Can't have religious dictatorship, says top scientist as he returns Padma award', 'Want to return to India, says Chhota Rajan', 'Sting exposes travel agents offering fake bills for babus to claim LTA', and 'PM Modi is 10th most admired personality globally: WEF survey'. The main article is titled 'World watch' with a sub-headline 'A quick round-up of what's trending in the international design world.' It includes a share section with Facebook, Twitter, and a plus icon. Below the article is a section titled 'Hang in there' featuring a photograph of a dining table with a dark surface and blue chairs, illuminated by a large, white, pleated suspended light fixture. The background shows a bookshelf and a window with a view of a city.
